

Design Your Own Emblem of Belief

Have you noticed the different pictures on headstones in the cemetery? Most of these symbols are what we call emblems of belief. Emblems of belief represent what was important to someone during their life. Some people choose a symbol that represents their religion. Some people choose a symbol that represents a personal belief like the importance of peace or the power of love.

What do you believe in and care about? Use the lines below to write down your ideas and then draw your own emblem of belief!
